In the Beginning God Created . . .

By faith

we understand that the world was created by the word of God,

so that what is seen was made out of things which do not appear.”

(Hebrews 11:13)

. . . He Created Man In His Image, For His Glory.

A broken altar, Lord, Thy servant rears,
Made of a heart, and cemented with tears:
Whose parts are as Thy hand did frame;
No workman's tool hath touched the same

A heart alone
Is such a stone
As nothing but
Thy power doth cut.
Wherefore each part
Of my hard heart
Meets in this frame
To praise Thy name;

That, if I chance to hold my peace,
These stones to praise Thee may not cease,
O let Thy blessed sacrifice be mine,
And sanctify this altar to be Thine.
("The Altar", by George Herbert)

Parts of the Larger World Take Shape in Our World.

Our World is different, special. Yet here, too, are people with needs common to all men — needs for food, for friendship and keeping in touch, for shelter, for work (even in the less desirable tasks), and most of all for God and His salvation. These needs bring us closer to all of God's world and closer, in gratitude, to Him.

God Brought Us Together in Our World . . .

We come from near-by cities and far-away lands
To live, study, and grow together.
Many backgrounds enmesh to form our world;
Different cultures contribute to the uniqueness
Of our surroundings;
Each individual experiences what it is to live in a
WORLD WITHIN A WORLD.

. . . To Be Stewards Of All of Our World . . .

With diverse talents,
In various tasks,
We together unfold God's creation —

Subduing the earth
With care for His world
And thanks for our strength through His Son.

. . . Who Develop Our Gifts Together.

Unique people, we have a medley of talents — in music and athletics, leadership and academics, technical skills and dramatics — all of which can be used to the glory of God. In the words of the apostle Paul, "whatsoever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not unto men."

In the World, We Are Set Apart.

Thus says God, the Lord,
Who created the heavens and stretched them out,
Who spread forth the earth and what comes from it,
Who gives breath to the people upon it
And spirit to those who walk in it:
“I am the Lord, I have called you in right — eousness,
I have taken you by the hand and kept you;
I have given you as a covenant to the people,
A light to the nations,
To open the eyes that are blind,
To bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
From the prison those who sit in darkness . . .”

God Controls Our Past and Future

Through all the changes in our world at Trinity — a fifth president in our twenty-sixth year, hopes for campus expansion, new challenges for students and instructors (both experienced and newly arrived alike) — one thing remains: the faithfulness of God.

ORGANIZATIONS

Helping Us Get Acquainted

Orientation 1984 was a time for new students to catch a glimpse of Trinity before the college kicked into full gear. The theme was "Seek the things . . . above" from Colossians 3:1. The goal was to introduce freshmen and transfer students to Trinity's "way of life" and to have some fun in Trinity's backyard — Chicago. The enthusiastic Orientation Committee worked hard to make the week flow smoothly. Overall, Orientation 1984 provided a good springboard for students to enter the full college experience.

For many students, college life means dorm life. Resident students are aided by resident directors and resident assistants. Working closely with the Dean of Students, RA's and RD's help to make sure things run smoothly in the dorms. Planning activities, leading Bible studies, and making sure everyone's light bulbs are working are among their responsibilities. RA's and RD's are an essential ingredient of happy dorm life.

Behind the Scenes

The purpose of the Student Association, as stated in the student manual, is to "honor the Lord Jesus Christ in the conduct of student activities and in the promotion of student life and interests." These objectives and the functions of Student Association are governed by a council made up of student officers, the Dean of Students, student development committees, and representatives of the student body. Student Assoc. and its sub-committees work hard to encourage and build a unified student body, which has as its foundation faith in God and belief in His Word.

The Academic Affairs committee works with the faculty association on matters of grading, curriculum, etc . . . and arranges films and lectures to be presented on campus throughout the year. Student Activities committee plays a key part in getting students involved in intramurals, Chicago area activities and on-campus social activities such as dances and concerts. This year students were able to purchase pass cards which gave them easy access to most campus activities. Student Ministries is active in helping students become involved in Christian service through organizations such as PACE, Summer Missions, Pro-Life, and others. Of course, Trinity is also fortunate to have the Student Publications committee, which maintains and provides for the needs of the Allelu and the Courier, Trinity's two official campus publications.

Dean Larsen, standing here in front of the Student Assoc. symbol, also plays an important role in the activities of Student Association.

“Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.” (Matthew 25:40b)

This Christian responsibility has been carried out on campus through organizations such as Bread for the World and Pro-Life. Both organizations worked actively this year for causes of world concern. Bread for the World supported three children in hunger-stricken countries, providing funds for food, clothing, and education.

The Pro-Life committee also answered the cries of helpless children by publicly defending the rights of the unborn child. Through films and literature, the criminal nature of abortion was portrayed.

Through these two organizations, the campus community has been given the chance to demonstrate their love for God by loving others.

"PACE is worth the extra time and effort it takes to go because it is so personally rewarding. There is a definite satisfaction in teaching such willing students who haven't had the opportunities to learn that we have had." Kim Dykema's feelings reflect those of all students who participated in the PACE program this year. Under the guidance of Mrs. Gail Rice, Trinity students spent Monday evenings tutoring inmates at the Cook County Jail.

Another program that serves to take Trinity students off campus is "Metro." The Chicago Metropolitan Center (CMC) works together with nine colleges to provide cultural exposure and professional work experience for qualified undergraduates through seminars, fine arts activities, and internships. The students draw from their classroom knowledge as they gain work experience in the fast-paced, unfamiliar surroundings of America's third largest city. Metro students receive a full semester's credit from their school.

Read All

The Courier staff kept us up to date on campus activities throughout the year. Feature writers, regular columnists, and concerned students contributed material to inform us of activities and general concerns of Trinity's campus.

The Allelu staff spent many hours putting the yearbook together. They tried to capture the vast range of activities and the wide variety of people at Trinity. Hopefully, the Allelu will provide TCC students with much enjoyment and many future memories.

Where the Action Is

As an exciting new addition to Trinity, the drama club has done well to establish itself as a vital part of the cultural life on campus. The club has gone to see various plays in Chicago and neighboring colleges, but its greatest achievement has been its mid-year production of I Never Saw Another Butterfly by Celeste Respante. The play, held in the chapel on January 31-February 2, was a great success, with sell-out crowds every night. With the leadership of directors Marsha Stoub and Pat Meekema, and the help of a hard working cast and crew, the play helped to establish the drama club as a great addition to Trinity cultural life. The club hopes to produce plays regularly in the future.

He Called Some to Be Teachers

Rev. Manny Ortiz pauses for a picture in front of Humboldt Community Christian School.

MEMBERS — Carole Voss, Laura Broekstra, Sandy Schaap, Christi Burgess, Judy Menninga, Jan Meyer, Cheryl Janek, Laura Scheeres.

The Future Teachers Club is an organization for students with an interest in education. It was organized in February 1984 and sponsored by Dr. Norman DeJong, Miss Grace Huitsing, and Mr. Ed VanderWeele.

The club tries to provide its members with a variety of activities and experiences. This year the Future Teachers Club sponsored an "Adopt — A — School" drive as well as a Walkathon for Humboldt Community Christian School. These two events stirred up both campus and community support.

Other activities included hearing guest lecturers from mission schools, writing letters to companies for free literature to build up the members' personal education files, observing a mock interview for a teaching position, and enjoying an end-of-the-year picnic.

Future Teacher Club officers present Manny Ortiz with a check for their "adopted" school.

Trinity

Trinity's vocal community underwent some changes in this school year. The choir's major change was its coming under the new direction of Mr. Dan Sytsma, a professor in his first year with Trinity. This year's choir, including some new first-year voices, practiced many hours to prepare for their performances throughout the year. Included in these performances were a couple of chapel appearances, as well as some evening concerts, on and off campus.

Trinity was also privileged this year with the start of a Gospel choir. Directed by Deb Posey and Zantesah Ingalls, and accompanied by Ocie Booker, the choir was blessed with great success. Since its chapel debut, it was well received by all at the college. Every chapel service led by the Gospel choir was very well attended. Many people were moved as the choir witnessed and lifted praises to the Lord in song. If the commitment and enthusiasm of the newly-formed Gospel choir continues, it has the potential of enjoying many more fulfilling years performing for the Trinity community.

Dan Sytsma leads singing in special church performance.

All students with various levels of interest in biology and chemistry are welcome to be members of Science Club. The main purpose of the club is to give students the opportunity to explore areas of science which they find exciting. Money is raised for these activities in several ways, but primarily through recycling.

Past activities have taken club members to Florida for Spring Break, fossil hunting in Illinois and cross-country skiing at Indiana Dunes State Park. Science Club has sponsored films on abortion, predator-prey relations and the importance of soil. Alumni and other speakers have come to talk about their area of specialty and to share some recent developments and discoveries in science.

Although the History Club at Trinity has a short history of only three years, the student and faculty members are very enthusiastic about its continuing growth and about the three goals which it pursues. First, the members try to encourage each other as they develop a Christian perspective on history. This task, which is not easy, is best carried out as a community. Second, they are committed to discussing topics of current interest and to bringing Christian insight to debates that go on in the newspapers, through the media, and at Trinity. Third, the History Club tries to excite the campus community about public affairs, about world problems, and about being historians.

Culturally and Physically Fit

Traditionally, Trinity holds an annual celebration of Cultural awareness. This year, Black History Week served that purpose. The Black History Week Committee was organized and directed by Zantesah Ingalls and Melanie Alexander. As a group, this committee arranged a week of activities which included guest speakers, films, and special music. The week was a success, bringing a real awareness to Trinity's campus of the significance of Blacks in our country, and the importance of all races working together under God. Black History Week provided a time of fellowship, worship, and appreciation among the diverse groups of Trinity students.

Working with the P.E. department, Intramural Staff organizes several sport activities throughout the year. These activities included Co-ed Softball, Men's and Women's Hoc-Soc, Women's and Co-ed Volleyball, and Men's Basketball. Responsibilities of the committee include opening the gym on the nights of activities, officiating games, and cleaning up equipment afterward. The committee has served a great purpose for Trinity's community, providing organized, enjoyable, physical activity for those interested in participating.

Safe From Harm and Hunger

"Where's the beef?" This year Coronet Food Service, under the direction of Marshall True, provided beef and other fine edibles in the dining hall. As representatives of each residence hall, the students on Food Service committee met with Marshall, discussing menu possibilities and favorites. With student input, meals were planned, prepared by kitchen workers, and served by work-study students for the enjoyment of the Trinity population. Hats off to Marshall and Coronet for a year of mean cuisine.

The Campus Security Staff serves the college in the evening hours from 10PM to 3AM. Each night of the week, two of approximately 13 members are on duty. They patrol the campus grounds checking buildings, doors, and vehicles, and cooperate with the Residence Staff, Palos Heights Police and Maintenance Department in handling a wide variety of unusual evening incidents. For the past two years the staff has been supervised by Dave Larsen, Dean of Students, and coordinated by student worker Tim Bergsma.

Softball

The year opened with co-ed 16-inch, one-pitch softball. Teams consisted of 8 to 15 players. The rules called for everyone to bat in each inning, receiving one pitch from a pitcher of his own team. Games were scheduled Monday through Thursday, with 2 night games played. The winning team was the "Wild, Woolly, Whooping Llamas."

A favorite intramural sport for both men and women is indoor soccer, or Hoc-Soc. "Professional" or amateur soccer players can play this type of soccer. Playing off the ceiling and walls provides action that does not stop for players and for spectators who dare to watch. The "Gerber Kids" posted a 2-0 win over the tournament Cinderella team "Krazy Kickers" in the women's final, and the "BB Bombers" became this year's men's champions by winning an exciting 3-2 overtime battle.

Men's Basketball

Intramural basketball had two leagues to accommodate all men of the student body, faculty, and alumni. For experienced players who needed a challenge, there was an advanced league. This league's champions were "The Good ol' Boys," an underdog team from Wisconsin. There was also a recreation team for those who had not had as much basketball background yet still wanted to participate. The champions of the recreation league were "Club Cheap Suits" — winners by forfeit.

Trolls' Soccer Moves Indoors

Indoor soccer provided literally off-the-wall excitement as a "club" sport during the winter and early spring. The men's team, largely comprised of players who had been on the outdoor team, posted a respectable showing at each of several tournaments and had as the highlight of their season a trophy-clinching first place victory over Trinity Deerfield on February 16 in the Mitchell Memorial Gymnasium. The first-time-ever women's team hosted one tournament and came away with one victory, as did the "Alumni" team, put together the night before as a replacement for the absent Trinity Deerfield.

Baby Huey & the Elite Eleven Spike Again

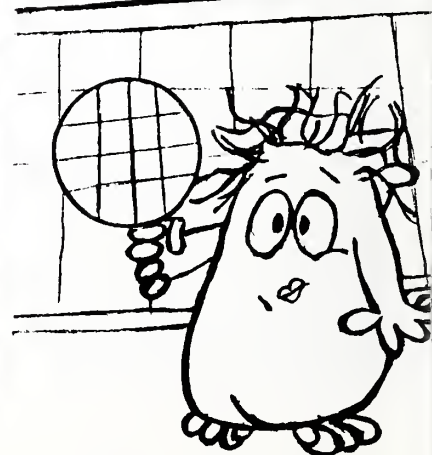

The Lady Trolls volleyball team will remember the 1984 season with the greatest of memories as the team finished second in the nation according to the NCCAA. Only a tough George Fox team stopped Trinity from gaining the national title in the tourney at Trinity Christian. The Lady Trolls finished the year with 27-11 record including a nine-match regular season winning streak and an impressive 11-match play-off winning streak that led Trinity into the national finals. Trinity posted a fine 18-2 record in home matches, a school record. Perhaps the biggest victory was at nationals when Trinity defeated Marion College, last year's national runner-up, in two straight games. Coach Lois Cole won her 150th career match this season, and Trinity's fine seniors, Judy Kamp and Debbie Lindemulder, were named to both the NCCAA All-District team and the NCCAA All-Tournament team unanimously.

Tales of the Trolls Goals

Using the theme "Going For More in '84," the men's soccer team faced one of its toughest seasons. Rebounding back from the injury-riddled 1983 campaign, the '84 squad ended the year healthy, but more importantly, winners. The Trolls, led by All-American John Groenewold, fought their way to a 9-8 final record. Although bowing out of the NCCAA tournament in the second round to Grand Rapids Baptist, Ribbens' team was marked by their aggressive play and a spirit that would not quit. When asked to comment on the season, Coach Ribbens said, "It was the best season ever, but we can look forward to '85." Besides Groenewold, three other players were selected as all-district players. They were Afework Zellelew (Jr.), William "Bowee" Jaywheh (So.), and senior Steve Goudzwaard. In addition to being selected for the NCCAA All-American team, John was the first player ever selected for honors outside of the NCCAA. John was named by area coaches to the All-Midwest and All-Illinois Colleges and University teams.

"Ribbs" Keeps

The 1984-85 Lady Trolls basketball team had an interesting mix of experienced players for first-year coach Dave Ribbens. Due to a great deal of hard work, the squad finished the season with an 11-10 record. The highlight in the early part of the season was a second place finish in the Rockford College tournament. In January, the Lady Trolls had a strong effort in a 58-56 road loss to a strong Hope College team and in a 59-55 win over Elmhurst College, whom they had not defeated in four seasons. The best series of performances occurred in early February when the Lady Trolls won five of six games with the only loss being an eight point loss to St. Louis University — an NCAA Division I school. Included in that win streak was their first title in their own Midwest Cup tourney. This year's team featured fine career-ending performances by seniors Betsy Shear, Lynnie Vander Woude, Judy Kamp, Sue Wiltjer, and Deb Dobben.

Men's Basketball: "An Off Beat Year"

The 1984-85 campaign for the men's basketball team was one of transition that saw four seniors play major roles in the team's success. While the team saw many young players looking for playing time and was undergoing a midseason coaching change, the stability of seniors Randy Danhour, Bill Vree, Dan Ottenhoff, and Jon Heiniger led Trinity Christian to a 10-20 record. The Trolls finished in fourth place in the Lake Michigan Conference with a 7-7 record. The early season highlight was Trinity Christian's first victory ever over Concordia College of Wisconsin 83-79 in Mequon. The second semester highlight was a five game winning streak in February. It started with the Trolls' first victory ever over Marian College of Wisconsin 82-75 in Fond du Lac. They defeated Marian College again just two weeks later. The Trolls entered the NCCAA district tournament giving a gutsy performance at Judson College before falling to a 69-60 decision.

Batter-Up!

The Trinity baseball club finished its second season with three wins and six losses. Next year the club will become a varsity sport. Highlighting the season was a 7-4 victory over George Williams College, the team's first win over a varsity baseball team. Bob Huisman was the team's leading hitter with a .471 average, and Edwin Caraballo knocked in seven runs. Scott De Young pitched in two-thirds of the games and helped to win two of the three games for the Trolls.

Sluggers and Sliders

The 1985 softball season was the finest in the brief history of the sport at Trinity. The team won 16 games and only lost 6, and during the course of the season, they beat all the teams they lost to, so they did beat all the teams they played. Leading the Trolls were seniors Deb Dobben (.397 avg.), Betsy Shear, and Judy Kamp, along with "ace-hurler" Dar Fransman (12-4) and Diane Pruim. A strong contingent of underclassmen also make the future look bright for Trinity softball.

Tee Off Time in Elk Grove

On May 3, Dr. De Jong loaded the van with six golfers for a weekend of fun in Wisconsin. The group stayed at some friends' homes Friday night to get a good night's sleep before playing in the annual Lake Superior Conference Golf Tournament. Trinity's golf team, the first one to be formed, made a very respectable showing at the Quit Qui Qo Country Club in Elk Grove, Wisconsin. Heavy wind kept the scores slightly inflated, Trinity being led by Jerry Fritsch's 91. Dr. De Jong posted a 90 in the coaches' tournament.

EVENTS & STUDENT LIFE

The Start of Our Year

Orientation 1984 was a big success again this year thanks to the student committee and Dean Larsen. The activities attempted to ease the adjustment to Trinity for new and transfer students. By becoming involved in the activities, students became acquainted with the campus and the people that make up Trinity Christian College.

Major items of interest on the schedule included several concerts, a trip downtown, a White Sox game, a talent show, a trip to Brookfield Zoo, and a dress-up dinner.

The theme for Orientation Week was "Seek the Things Above," and through orientation, students took the first step in accomplishing this important goal.

Formal events that occurred during the school year's first weeks included Convocation, the opening ceremony of the academic year; a CABLE business award dinner, which formally presents certain students with their monetary business scholarships; and the Hostess Dinner.

TOP RIGHT: Michale Chatham and freshmen Jill Voskuil, Deb Los, Sue Dees, and Jill Rademaker participate in another game.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Those in attendance enjoy the CABLE award dinner at the Alsip Holiday Inn.

Chapels . . .

Chapels at Trinity Christian College are a large part of the weekly life of many students. Chapel meets three mornings a week and both residents and commuters attend, often filling the chapel to capacity. Faculty, staff, and students are the vital force behind each chapel service, as well as special guest speakers.

Several concerts were given throughout this year with music ranging from Folk to Contemporary to Classical. Some of the artists that came to perform for us were Maribeth Baker, Ralston Bowles, Bill Romanowski, Norman Ruiz, the Avendo String Quartet, and the college's own Robin Sterling and Daniel Sytsma.

Madrigals Delight Many

The Madrigal Christmas Dinners, which draw many people to the college every year, were held on the crisp winter evenings of late November and early December in the college dining hall.

Taking part in the spectacular Christmas dinners, which have their origin in England, were the Madrigal singers, Lord Chamberlain, the court jester, and assisting elves.

The meal, which included such items as wassail, a salad with marsh-berry sauce, Cornish hen, baked potato, french-cut green beans with almonds, loaves of bread, and Figgy pudding, was prepared by Coronet Food Service.

Some of the better known songs performed by the Madrigal Singers were, "Angels, We Have Heard On High", "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen", and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas."

Dr. Kenneth Bootsma: Trinity's Fifth President

Dr. Kenneth B. Bootsma was inaugurated as the fifth president of Trinity Christian College on January 15th, 1985 in a ceremony at Peace Memorial Church in Palos Park.

Dr. Bootsma, who has a wide range of experience in Christian education and administration, assumed office on September 1, 1984.

The college marshalls, delegates from other colleges and universities, the faculty and trustees of Trinity Christian College, and the President's Party took part in the Academic Procession.

Organist Marilyn Mulder and soloist Harold Clousing each gave a mini-recital before the ceremony and participated in the ceremony itself.

The Inaugural Choir consisted of the Trinity Choir and Chorale and singers from Chicago, Timothy, and Illiana Christian High Schools.

A dinner preceded and a reception followed this historic event in the life of Trinity Christian College.

Wimbledon Night '85

"Wimbledon Night" was held this year at Wimbledon, U.S.A. Racquet Club on February 16. Students enjoyed an open gym night with activities such as tennis, racquetball, and wallyball (an off-the-wall variation of volleyball). Tournaments were held in tennis and racquetball throughout the evening, with college president Dr. Ken Bootsma winning the men's singles tennis final.

Sports Banquet

On May 11, athletes and coaches, along with some faculty and parents, enjoyed a Cornish-hen dinner preceding the annual athletic awards ceremony, in which participating and outstanding athletes are recognized. Mr. Dave Ribbens served as master of ceremonies and also presented to Dr. Lois Cole a "farewell" memento, as she had finished her tenth and final year of coaching and teaching at Trinity. The highest honor for women athletes, the Women's Athletic Award, went to senior Betsy Shear, and the most prestigious men's award, the Keith Albers Memorial Award, was presented to two seniors: Steve Goudzwaard and Steve Konings.

Blood Drive

This year's Blood Drive, held February 6, was a big success, as 33 donors participated. Since the need for blood was great, each pint collected by the staff of Aurora Blood Bank was much appreciated.

A New Event: Pipes and Pizza

A new and overwhelmingly successful addition to the college's entertainment schedule was a night at Pipes and Pizza pizza parlour in Lansing on March 25. Unlimited pizza, pop, and organ music was made available to Student Association Card holders for just one dollar and to non-card holders for three.

Art Shows 1984-85

Many art openings were held this year, with such featured artists as Michael Mallard, Matt Holland, Tim Van Laar, and others. "Opus '85," the student art show, included sculpture, painting, and photography. Music and interpretive readings were included at the "Opus '85" reception. The senior show, with a reception on May 7, featured the work of senior art student Warren Batkiewicz.

Country Fair

This spring's Country Fair, directed by Mr. George Baar and sponsored, as always, by the Women's Guild, was held on May 11. The "Troll Trot," the college's annual footrace, began the day's activities, with 95 runners participating in the two race divisions (Troll Trot and Mini Trot). After a tasty pancake breakfast, visitors enjoyed various sales booths, a garden plant sale, bratwurst and potato stands, an auction, and diversions for the children. The fair took in $40,000 (before expenses) to benefit the college.

Commencement Exercises

Another class passed through Trinity on May 18, with 93 graduates receiving Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, or, for the first time this year, Bachelor of Science in Nursing degrees. The commencement ceremony, held at the Moraine Valley Baptist Church, began at 11:00 a.m. U.S. Navy chaplain Captain H. Bergsma, father of two graduates (Dan and Randy), delivered the commencement address entitled "Godly Nobility in Social Mobility." Seniors Steve Konings and Becky Kroll led a litany, which included in it two vocal solos by music professor Mr. Dan Sytsma.

In addition to the commencement ceremony, a nursing convocation also was held this year, honoring the college's first graduating nursing class with a pinning ceremony at the Palos Reformed Church. Class speaker Lorraine Stoll delivered a humorous reminiscence speech, and former nursing faculty member Kayanne Janiga delivered the more serious convocation address entitled "Commitment." Barb Wigboldy led a litany and Liz Harrell and Ocie Booker provided special music.
